2. Rainwater Harvest and Drain Project in Community Apartments

Primary Stakeholders:
- Apartment Residents
- Resident Welfare Association (RWA)
- Civil Engineers and Contractors

Secondary Stakeholders:
- Local Government/Municipality
- Environmental Groups

Key Influencers:
- Community Leaders
- Policy Makers (water conservation)

Stakeholder Mapping for Key Projects

- 1. Mobile Phones Upgrade to 5GPrimary Stakeholders:- Employees (users of the phones)- IT Department
 - Mobile Service Providers
 - Device Manufacturers

Secondary Stakeholders:

- Customers (indirect benefit from faster services)
 - Software Developers
 - Tech Support Teams

Key Influencers:

Company Leadership/ExecutivesGovernment/Telecom Regulatory Bodies

Let's map out the stakeholders for each of these projects! I'll organize the stakeholder mapping by categorizing stakeholders as:

Primary stakeholders: Directly impacted or involved.

Secondary stakeholders: Indirectly affected or engaged.

Key influencers: Individuals who hold the ability to influence decisions or results.

3. Cold Storage Facility Establishment

Primary Stakeholders:
- Farmers and Producers
- Logistics and Supply Chain Partners
- Storage Facility Managers

Secondary Stakeholders:
- Retailers and Markets
- Consumers

Key Influencers:
- Government Agricultural Departments
- Investors/Financiers

4. Smart City with All E-Vehicles

Primary Stakeholders:
- City Residents
- Public Transport Operators
- EV Manufacturers and Charging Station Providers

Secondary Stakeholders:
- Urban Planners
- Local Businesses

Key Influencers:
- City Government/Authorities
- Environmental Activists

5. 360-Degree Digitalization of Bank Service

Primary Stakeholders:

- Bank Customers
- Bank Employees
- IT and Cybersecurity Teams

Secondary Stakeholders:
- Third-Party Fintech Providers
- Regulatory Bodies (like RBI, in India)

Key Influencers:
- Bank Executives

- Government Financial Authorities